Welcome to

MIIRO TEMPLETON GARDEN

The festive season in Kensington is no small affair, so allow us to make the planning beautifully straightforward.

Set across a row of restored Victorian townhouses, Miiro Templeton Garden is home to modern British cooking at Pippin's, expertly mixed cocktails at Sprout Bar and a collection of private event spaces for festive dinners, drinks and end-of-year gatherings in West London. Earl's Court station is just four minutes away on foot, which makes getting here rather easy. And with 156 rooms, including 12 suites, staying the night is an equally easy decision.

Pippin's Restaurant

Pippin's is our modern British restaurant, where seasonal ingredients from trusted British suppliers are put to very good use. Warm, relaxed and overlooking our private garden, it makes a rather lovely setting for festive lunches, team suppers and generous dinners with clients, friends or family.

Gather everyone around a semi-private long table or take over the restaurant for up to 62 guests seated or 80 standing. Pick and choose from our seated menu, served course by course, or keep things more informal with canapés. Familiar British dishes are given a festive turn throughout. We'll arrange the space to suit the plans and the people.

Pippin's Patio

Tucked away in our private garden, Pippin's Patio can become your own West London winter wonderland. With umbrella coverings and cushioned banquette seating, it's a cosy spot beneath the trees for up to 50 guests standing. Naturally, we'll make sure there's plenty of something sparkling.

Sprout Bar

Our intimate cocktail bar pairs seriously good drinks with a playful streak and the occasional festive flourish. Sophisticated without taking itself too seriously, it's low-lit, cosy and a rather good host for day-and-night celebrations.

Hire the bar on its own or together with the adjoining terrace overlooking our private garden, with seating for up to 20 guests and the option to add canapés prepared by Pippin's. Draw the curtain for a more secluded gathering or leave it open and let the occasion spill into the hotel lobby. From drinks receptions and pre-dinner cocktails to press events, all sorts of occasions sit rather nicely here.

Pip's Studio

Our dedicated private event space is a blank canvas of the best kind: private, flexible and ready to be arranged around your plans. Set it with long tables for a seated meal, keep things informal with drinks and canapés, or transform it with your choice of music and a dance floor as day turns to night.

Food comes courtesy of Pippin's, with drinks by Sprout. Bring the team, entertain clients or gather friends and family. From a civilised start to a late-night hurrah, consider it handled.

The Garden Room

Set on the lower ground floor beside our private garden, this naturally low-lit, intimate space is suited to team away days and end-of-year planning. Take care of business around the table, then turn the working day into dinner. Away from work, it makes a secluded setting for candlelit dinners with friends or family, seating up to ten guests. All-day catering and festive menus come from Pippin's, with drinks by Sprout. A TV, 360° camera, mic and speaker handle the practicalities.

The Templeton Garden Suite

Not every festive gathering needs a traditional event space. Our Templeton Garden Suites offer something different: three rather handsome, light-filled hotel suites beside our lush private garden, with high ceilings, large sash windows, French doors and a distinctly English sense of style. Two have private patios with gated access to the main garden, while the third opens directly onto it.

Host a festive workshop, cocktail party, product launch or intimate gathering somewhere your guests are unlikely to have celebrated before. And with a super king four-poster bed, freestanding bath and complimentary minibar to raid, the host may feel rather inclined to stay the night.

Food Menu

Now for arguably the most important part: what everyone will eat. Pippin's festive menus put the best of British winter produce to very good use, bringing familiar seasonal flavours together with a few rather polished surprises.

Turn the page to pick and choose from our three-course menu, served at the table, or opt for a standing reception with canapés.
